

Year 3 Curriculum Overview

Nowhere I'd Rather Be - Autumn 1

Literacy— I will revisit the grammar terminology learnt in Year 1.

I will learn how to role play a character and discuss how they may feel.

I will learn how to separate items in a list using commas.

I will write a story.

Big Maths—Clic 10 - I will count past 100.

I will learn to count on and back in 100s.

I will learn to add and subtract 10 to a 2d number.

I will learn to compare and sort shapes

I will learn to double and halve 2 digit numbers.

I will learn more about real life superheroes.

I will visit Furness Abbey and learn about my local area's history.

I will take create a presentation after taking part in the Happy and Healthy Lifestyle Project.

I will use new technology to learn about light.

Healthy Humans — Autumn 2

Literacy—I will learn to use non fiction books to answer questions.

I will learn to write a tongue twisting poem.

I will learn to use the suffixes -ful -less -ly and recap on other suffixes.

I will learn to consistently use present and past tense correctly.

I will learn to write a non-chronological report.

Big Maths—Clic 10—I will learn to add hundreds.

I will learn to add a 1 digit number to a two digit number

I will learn to choose the best unit of measurement— metre or centimetre, kilogram or gram.

I will learn all about the Rainforest, including animals and the people who live there.

I will be inspired by artists to create my own version of a painting.

I will learn how to fuel my body correctly

I will play a musical instrument

This is what Year 3 looks like for me:

Lifelong Learning:

I will learn to try make the most of new opportunities and experiences.

I will learn to give my best effort to everything I do.

I will learn to take on board advice given by others in school.

Lifelong Learning:

I will learn to become more independent in order to improve my work.

I will learn to understand the value of teamwork.

I will ask lots of questions and my curiosity will be encouraged.

Rock and Roll - Spring 1

Literacy—I will write an eye witness account.

I will learn that stories from the past are still relevant.

I will use different sentence types in my writing.

I will write instructions.

I will look at non-fiction texts and learn about the index, glossary and contents pages.

Big Maths—Clic 11—I will learn to partition numbers.

I will learn to add and subtract tens.

I will learn to tell the time.

I will learn to find fractions of amounts .

I will find half of a multiple of 10.

I will learn about past events which impacted on our country.

I will take part in the Building My Skills project to develop the skills I will need for employment and learn about a CV.

I will visit a local beach to find different types of rocks and fossils.

I will take part in an archaeological dig.

The Iron Man—Spring 2

Literacy—I will write my own adventure story based on a familiar story.

I will write a film review.

I will learn to use apostrophes for possession.

Big Maths—Clic 11—I will learn to add 2d numbers.

I will learn to multiply numbers.

I will use right angles.

I will find fractions of amounts by sharing and counting.

I will learn to spot and continue shape patterns

I will learn about the different ways in which people live.

I will try my best to complete my SATs to the best of my ability.

I will work with a local business

I will create a model

Statutory Testing

SATs take place throughout May

Maths (2 papers) - Reasoning and Arithmetic

Reading (2 papers)

SPaG tests (2 papers)

What the Romans Did for Us - Summer 1

Literacy—I will learn to act out scenes from a story.

I will learn to use expanded noun phrases within a character description.

I will learn to write a recount about an event (Young Voices).

I will learn to use subordination (when, if, that because) and coordination (and, or, but)

Big Maths—Clic 12 - I will learn to read 3digit numbers.

I will learn to count in 50s.

I will learn to give change from £1

I will learn to solve division with objects.

I will learn music ready to perform in Manchester at Young Voices.

I will read many books written by the same author.

I will visit Hadrian's wall

I will build a bridge using techniques

Going for Gold—Summer 2

Literacy—I will write about my trusted grown up from my KidSafe education.

I will write a set of instructions.

I will read a longer story and learn detail about the characters.

I will know how to spell many common words.

Big Maths—Clic 12 —I will learn to choose the best unit of measurement— litre or millilitre.

I will know x2, x5 and x10 tables.

I will learn to add and subtract a half, quarter and third.

I will place different periods of time in order.

I will learn about a variety of sporting events and sporting heroes.

I will participate in 'Kidsafe' sessions.

I will celebrate completing the Building My Skills project in Year 2. I will participate in sports Day and go on a whole school trip,